FAYETTEVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY
FAYETTEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA
VOLUME 42

*To everything there is a season. . .
And a time to every purpose under heaven.*

A time to begin, a time to end
A time to be different, a time to conform
A time to dance, a time to mourn
A time to lead, a time to follow
A time to spend, a time to save

To everything there is a season
And a time to every purpose under heaven
A time to study, a time to party
A time to unite, a time to stand alone
A time to cram, a time to be tested

To everything there is a season
And a time to every purpose under heaven
A time to love, a time to leave
A time to embrace, a time to challenge
A time to win, a time to lose
A time to speak, a time to listen
A time to read, a time to write

To everything there is a season
And as the seasons turn at FSU
We live, look back and remember . . .

It's Time: TO BETTER OURSELVES

Fayetteville State University is the home of the mighty bucking Broncos. There's no doubt about it, we Broncos are a proud and spirited bunch! In our quest for understanding the world and ourselves, one question seems to rise more frequently than any other. Why are we here? At first analysis, one might be swayed to say, "for an education." However, the answer goes much farther than earning one's degree. We're here to be better people than we were the days before we arrived on campus. Fayetteville State University is cultivating better human beings. The challenge that one must overcome, is to be the better Bronco-the better self!

Leadership is not a face that a Bronco wears in the lime light or when someone important is watching. One who observes our campus leaders will note that the Bronco motto, res non verba, deeds not words, is more than the mere wishful thinking on the part of our predecessors. Those who came before us were pioneers, making a difference in the lives of young African-Americans. And in that tradition, we also lead. As the days turn into years, and years into centuries, it has been a primary goal to instill in each student a sense of responsible obligation. We leave Fayetteville State University and find our respective destinies in the world with an intrinsic motivation to make a difference in the lives of our peers and within our community.

Student Government Association

A TIME TO LEAD

The Student Government Association serves as the official voice of the student body. Elected to serve, these able body leaders devote countless hours addressing student issues and concerns.

During the 1998-99 academic year, the Association addressed campus safety, sponsored a Financial Aid forum, and attended the CIAA Leadership Conference. Their activity on campus is only rivaled by their tenacious involvement at NC Association of Student Governments and NC Black Student Government Association.

This year, Keron James served as SGA President. James, the first non American to man the helm of the SGA, is a Junior, Chancellor's Scholar majoring in Music Education. His home is Trinidad. In an effort to diversify student experiences and to share his culture with the students, Keron sponsored a trip to NCCU's honorary program for the Trinidadian born Miss Universe.

Student Activities Council

A TIME TO MAKE IT HAPPEN

The Student Activities Council is at the heart and soul of Bronco Pride. Each member possesses the energy and creativity to keep the momentum, that is SAC, going. To ensure its longevity, the new members must successfully complete SAC college, a rigorous training course on planning, programming, policy and procedure. Every year, the Council does its very best to enhance the quality of student life.

Fixed on laying the foundation for incoming freshmen, SAC introduced the new students to the Bronco way. During Freshmen Orientation, SAC presented: "Are You Ready to Rumble?" It gave indepth information on clubs & organizations and the appropriate manner in which Broncos represent the white and blue. Each new Bronco left knowing we'll always expect the best.

The Student Activities Council's major responsibilities include sponsoring Welcome Back Week, Homecoming, and the Rodeo. Each of these week-long events is jammed pack with safe alternatives for collegiate fun. Bronco Cinema, Hip Hop Bingo, Super Free Play, Bowling, the Dating Game, Coffee House, Mardi Gras, The Blu-au, and Carnival are just a few ways SAC livens up FSU's campus. They really made it happen one last time in '99!

A TIME TO REIGN...

Miss Fayetteville State University

RUSHAUNDA RAMEY

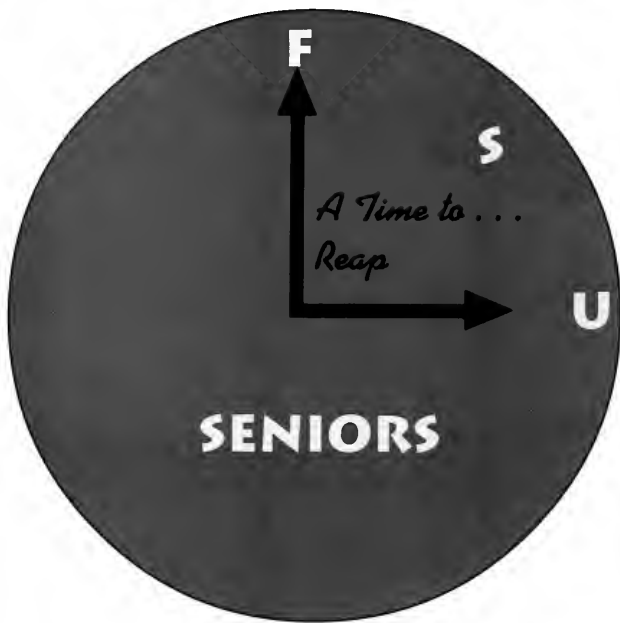

Rushaunda Antoinette Ramey assumed the title of Miss Fayetteville State University in December. A junior Criminal Justice Major from Raleigh, North Carolina, Rushaunda reigned with grace, poise and style. Rushaunda is a Chancellor's Scholar, president of the Illusions Modeling Club and a member of the Criminal Justice Club. She represented the University at numerous programs and activities to include: Martin Luther King Birthday Celebration, SGA Black History Month Program, Black History Month Fashion Show, CIAA Leadership Conference, Alumni Breakfast, Founders' Day, Nick Gerald's Elementary School Talent Show, Ferguson Elementary School Charm Workshop, Youth Motivational Task Force and the Miss Fayetteville State University Scholarship Pageant.

Mr. FSU

JOHN SMITH

John Smith, a native of Charlotte, North Carolina, represented the University with the upmost in Bronco Pride as Mr. FSU. John is a Chancellor's Scholar, Drum Major of the Marching Bronco Express, Resident Assistant and member of the Black Millenium Modeling Club. He participated in numerous programs and activities to include: Homecoming Coronation, Parade, and Game; Mr. 71st High School Competition-judge, Martin Luther King Jr. Parade and Birthday Celebration, CIAA Leadership Conference, Alumni Breakfast, Youth Motivational Task Force, Founders' Day, Miss Fayetteville State University Scholarship Pageant and the American All-Star Band Camp. Most noteworthy, John served as the youth spokesperson for the Cumberland County, NC Cooperative Extension Service Baby Think It Over Program, a teen pregnancy prevention program. John conducted workshops which explored the emotional, financial and social consequences of teen parenting to area teenagers.

The time of classroom lectures, homework, late night studying, questions, research and examinations is put first before that of laughter and dancing, for we must first sow in scholarship and reap in joy. To be a senior means a great deal of time and effort were put to use in the pursuit of a dream. Earning a degree, or getting your papers (as it is commonly referred to by undergraduate students) can be tantamount to a regular trial by ordeal. Graduation day is the culmination of those four (or five or six) years of exceptionally challenging mental gymnastics. Like a cross country match, the finish line is in sight. It is the Bronco intent to reap the gold. For our families and for the future it is time to reap success.

Senior Class History: The Best for Last

It was only four years ago, 1995 when the last class of the millennium left from high school yards to the hallowed halls of Fayetteville State University. As students, we were to be challenged to be the very best and the brightest academically. Society dared us Broncos to make the best use of our time and to conclude successfully. The opportunities were boundless. While the country awaited the O. J. verdict, we were busy. It was time to prepare for tomorrow.

In the 1995-96 academic year, as the freshmen class, we were off to a remarkable beginning. We met the onset of the new year anxious to be counted. Our voice would be heard with Tiffany Brown, Demetria White, LaTysha Bolden, and Taurus Singleton as Freshman Class President, Vice President, Secretary, and Queen respectively. Rotimi Ariyo, Douglas Barnes and Kelvin Thompson also represented the class as senators in the SGA. This year we would organize with Wayne X Hodges, Student Body President, and head to Washington, D.C. for the Million Man March. Kelvin Thompson and Demetria White were trailblazers by becoming the first freshmen ever to be elected to SGA!

During our sophomore year it was plain to see we would continue in the Bronco tradition of "bucking the system." Though we remained an active voice within the student government and undergraduate politics, some of our peers felt too restricted by the current policies with reference to spontaneous gatherings on campus. After leaving one of the more liberal off campus parties, thrown by the Bryant Hall Clique, some students insisted, "Hey, the party ain't over!" When the party continued in Bryant Hall's Parking lot, campus police insisted that it was. To make a long story short, it took in excess of 20 Fayetteville city policemen and a pair of fire trucks to cool the party off. This incident had the potential for disaster, however, it brought about lots of discussion, including students' first amendment rights. In the final analysis, students were granted the express permission of the chancellor to assemble spontaneously on the yard. It was a time for victory.

Junior year presented the class of '99 with exciting and new opportunities. It was a year of firsts. After playing Las Vegas and venturing up the east coast for tour, this year the Concert Choir, Brass, Choral and Jazz Ensembles embarked on a European Tour. They performed for capacity crowds in both Paris, France and Brussels, Belgium. Upon return, the Jazz Band was off to perform on the Royal Caribbean Cruise Ship. This was the first time in FSU history that our musical organizations would assume the role of international ambassadors from Bronco Country. In the spring semester we would also elect the first Trinidadian Student Body President, Keron James. This certainly was a time to innovate.

With Senior year upon us, there was little time to waste. We quickly got our affairs in order, but for many there was a hold up. The Office of Financial Aid. Students waited for many months, some with major financial responsibilities, for their federal aid to be awarded. At the end of the day there was only one resounding cry: Show me the Money! Refund Check; Bronco Pride! After SGA initiated town hall styled meetings, long talks, and the attention of the press the issue was resolved and eventually rectified. On a more serious note, this year was also marred with tragedy. Several students were slain by their trench coat adorned peers in Columbine, OK at Columbine High. Fayetteville State University is an institution whose legacy is one of educating educators. This year, prospective teachers were forced to redefine what their role in life would be. Putting oneself in jeopardy to give the gift of education to America's youth is proving daily to truly be a labor of love.

The class of 1999 will end its journey at FSU on May 15, 1999, in the Felton J. Capel Arena, but we will always cherish the memories of Old White and Blue. To those who chose to follow, it is time.

Anyone who has ever complained, "There is nothing to do," was sadly mistaken. From the very start of the school year SAC or The Student Activities Council kicks off the new year with welcome back week. A great time is to be had by all at this week long campus wide event. SAC also provides the student body a plethora of fun activities to participate in during the year. Movie nights, dances, coffee houses, comedy jams, Bronco Beach, Bowling, game shows, karaoke, and Las Vegas night. Campus clubs, Greek lettered organizations, and social fellowships have programs including speakers, panel discussions and off-campus parties. Which ever events you choose to take part in, you're sure to find students with similar interest and various backgrounds with whom you can connect.

DANCING IN THE STREETS: MUSIC, MELODY AND MAGIC

On Saturday, April 28, 1998 Broncos were invited to retreat back to a time filled with music, melody and magic-- the Motown Era. Akia Victor, Miss FSU 1997; Daniel Wright and Aisha Oaks in true "Supreme" tradition, and the contestants commanded that the audience join them for a roaring good time of "Dancing in the Streets" during the opening number which featured a melody of Motown hits.

Eleven dynamic ladies fiercely competed for the coveted title in the five phases of competition: student vote, interview, sportswear, talent, and evening gown. Joanna Lowe, a Chancellor's Scholar from Madison, NC, was crowned Miss Fayetteville State University 1998. Rushaunda Ramey was selected First Runner Up and Carmen Jackson was selected Second Runner Up. Alicia Branch was selected Miss Congeniality by her fellow contestants.

Miss Fayetteville State University

JOANNA LOWE

Joanna Lowe served as Miss Fayetteville State University during the Fall 1998 Semester. She is a Junior majoring in Biology with a minor in Medical Technology. Joanna has been actively involved in numerous activities. Most notably, serving as Chief Justice of the Student Judicial Board. While actively serving as Miss FSU, she was also a valuable member of the Student Government Association, the Student Activities Council and University Choir. Miss Lowe is a Chancellor's Scholar from Madison, North Carolina.

During her reign as Miss FSU, Joanna sang and spoke as the University's official hostess on several occasions. She participated in Orientation programs and activities, competed in the National Black Collegiate Alumni Hall of Fame Pageant, Fall Convocation, and Homecoming festivities.

Orientation & Welcome Back Week

A TIME TO BEGIN

It was the best of times-- Orientation for the Class of 2002. These 549 eager Broncos arrived on campus full of anticipation and excitement ready to begin their time at FSU.

In addition to profile exams, new students also learned about the rich history of Fayetteville State and various components of the University. A highlight of orientation was Spirit Night. At the Chancellor's request-- Bill Pinckney and the Original Drifters were invited for a command performance. It was a night to remember as the University family--upperclassmen, faculty, staff, alumni and the community, officially embraced the new Broncos.

Welcome Back Week began at the conclusion of the Orientation activities. Sponsored by the Office of Student Activities and the Student Activities Council, the week served as means for upperclassmen and new students to bond. Some of the activities included: Bronco Cinema; a Bowling Party; Student Center Super Free Play; Bronco Street Carnival; Bronco Beach and Welcome Back Dance.

Commuter Appreciation Week

A TIME TO COME TOGETHER

Commuter Appreciation Week, sponsored by the Office of Student Activities and the Student Activities Council, spotlighted the numerous programs and services offered by various components of the Division of Student Affairs and other University offices. The activities took place under a "big tent" strategically placed on campus to attract the large commuter population. The theme for the week was "Student Affairs: The Greatest Show on Earth."

The week included the following activities: a Kick Off activity which showcased the new AUTOS Commuter Association; the 4th Annual Club and Organization Fair; a Health Fair; Campus Resource Tables; Noon Day Cafe'; a Coffee House which featured a band, poetry readings, and refreshments; and a dance.

Mr. FSU Competition TO GOOD TO BE TRUE

Broncos gathered in Capel Arena could not take their eyes off the six young men competing for the distinguished title of Mr. FSU. Paul McPherson, Chris Wilks, Jeff Smith, Lamont Sparrow, Kelvin Thompson, and John Smith recognized that it was their time to claim their rightful place upon the throne.

Tameka Kenan and Rod Woods, both Junior Communication majors, served as the Mistress and Master of Ceremonies. The night was filled with enthusiasm and excitement from the moment the contestants stepped on stage and boldly presented themselves during their opening routine to Lauryn Hill's rendition of "Can't Take My Eyes Off of You". Four talented divas: Joanna Lowe, Simone Dickey, Shontae Henry and Akia Victor also enlightened the evening with their musical talents.

The contestants competed in five categories: Student Vote, Casual Wear, Athletic Wear, Self Expression and Formal Wear. At the conclusion of the competition John Smith was crowned Mr. FSU. Lamont Sparrow was selected First Runner-Up and Jeff Smith was named Second Runner-Up. Chris Wilks was voted Most Supportive by his fellow contestants.

As the kick off event for Homecoming '98, the 3rd Mr. FSU Competition set the tone for a week full of Bronco Pride.

CAN'T HIDE "DAT" BRONCO PRIDE

Stand back! That Bronco's bucking! Nothing compares to the bucking good times of a Bronco Homecoming. Everyone is excited and this is definitely a time to celebrate. For one week in the fall semester, The Student Activities Council would flood the campus with Bronco Pride, leaving all fakers in a blue and white haze.

Festivities kicked off on Sunday, October 25. The men on campus took center stage as they vie for the title of Mr. FSU. On this night, the Capel Arena was full of onlookers wondering who would walk away with the crown. To his surprise fate would have Joanna Lowe, Ms. FSU '98 to crown Mr. John Smith as our new Mr. FSU.

The party continued on Monday with the Blue and White dance. With DJ Base on the Wheels of Steel we couldn't go wrong. Everyone was sure to wear the school's colors for fear of a hefty admission price. As Demetria White, SAC Program Director would say, "FIVE DOLLARS!"

Tuesday and Wednesday allowed the student body to take a more active role in the fun. Black Millennium Modeling Club sponsored Showtime at Seabrook. Truly no one could have prepared for the good, the bad, and the down right ugly that night. That evening worked the same way as the popular style of talent shows made popular in Harlem, NY. The next night several students took the hot seat in "You Laugh, You Lose." In this live game show comedians tried their very best to make us laugh.

The week was getting off to a tremendous start and yet there was still more to come.

Coronation

"ON TOP OF THE WORLD"

"We're just trying to do the best doing what we got to do-- Cause Broncos' know that we are sitting on top of the world". These words resounded radiantly through Capel Arena as Miss Fayetteville State University, Joanna Lowe and Mr. FSU, John Smith, presented the more than 50 campus queens and kings during the annual Homecoming Coronation.

This year there was a new twist to the premiere homecoming event. For the first time in FSU history a Mr. Homecoming was added to the circle of Bronco royalty. Max Fawapootanont, Antwaunn Shaw, Ronald Stewart and Andre' Whitehead campaigned for the title of Mr. Homecoming 1998. Antwaunn Shaw, a senior from Temples Hill, MD, was crowned FSU's first Mr. Homecoming, Ronald Stewart was first runner up, and Andre' Whitehead was second runner up.

Fourteen lovely young ladies were candidates for the title of Miss Homecoming 1998. Niya Carr, a junior hailing from Charlotte, NC was named Homecoming Queen, Demetria White was first runner up and Tiffany Green was second runner up.

Comedy Jam

A TIME TO LAUGH

Outside, down the stairs, around the corner, and into the parking lot of the Capel Arena stood many anxious patrons in a quadruple file line. Each was waiting to get their laugh on with the comedy styling of Michael Colyar, Pierre, Bruce Bruce, and Chocolate. That's right. The Student Activities Council was throwing their biggest Comedy Jam ever.

Opening the show was the Smile Band, out of DC. They played their slammin' renditions of the latest R&B and Hip Hop. Just when we thought they were through, they gave us some more! The crowd was hyped and everyone was feeling the band. It would only be moments before we would bring on the Comedy.

Y'all ready for your first comedian, say yeah. Pierre was so funny. His show was not one for the whole family, but the college crowd was in stitches. This not so tall man got some very big laughs. Next on the roster, was Bruce Bruce, the big daddy of them all. His lively style of comedy caught some of the audience on the ooky doke. Some hecklers thought he would endure some of their rhetoric. However, this was not the case. He quickly shut them up and continued to rock the house in his own way. The only female comedian in this group was Chocolate. She was straight hilarious from the beginning. A seasoned artist, her mix of narrative comedy and one liners was a winning combination. Now, Michael Colyar was a complete character. His show included social commentary, political awareness, and everyday common sense comedy. When the jam came to an end, everyone was completely laughed out.

The night was a definite success by any measure and it was only Friday. There was still more time to celebrate.

Parade A TIME TO STRUT

Bands marched, queens waved, dancers pranced all to the delight of the hundreds of spectators who lined the traditional parade route. It was obvious to all who attended the 1998 FSU Homecoming Parade that we simply "can't hide that Bronco pride".

FSU retirees, Dr. & Mrs. Henry Eldridge, served as the grand marshalls for the 61st homecoming parade.

Homecoming Game

A TIME TO FIGHT

Hundreds of students, alumni, family and friends filled Bronco Stadium to watch the FSU Broncos take on the Bowie State Bulldogs.

The football game was filled with stellar defense and a solid offensive effort by the Broncos; however, the Bulldogs would not be denied. Despite the 10-7 defeat, Broncos enjoyed a wonderful homecoming.

A highlight of the game was the Half time festivities. Following the Bowie State Marching Band performance, the Mighty Bronco Express brazenly marched onto the field and let it be known that this was Bronco Territory! The festivities concluded with the presentation of Dr. Dallas Freeman, FSU National Alumni President; Brenda Thomas '74, Miss Alumni; Niya Carr, Miss Homecoming; Antwaunn Shaw, Mr. Homecoming; Joanna Lowe, Miss FSU; John Smith, Mr. FSU and Chancellor McLeod '64.

Step Show

A TIME TO THRO' DOWN

The Capel Arena was packed to capacity for the annual FSU Pan-Hellenic Council Homecoming Step Show. The crowd was in for a real treat as the sororities and fraternities stepped forth to demonstrate their skills.

It was a night for high steps and top hats as each organization graced the stage with their presence and style. The ladies of Alpha Kappa Alpha dazzled the crowd with their tribute to the frats as they fought hard to retain 1st place for a second year in a row. Zeta Phi Beta's ripples and acrobatics distinguished them as a main contender for the crown. Delta Sigma Theta commanded the attention and respect of all when they hit the stage in their red satin pants with matching ties, suspenders and top hats.

The Kappas straight out of "Nupe Kounty Penitentiary", a maximum security facility for pretty boys, left us calling for more as they whirled and twirled their amazing canes. Phi Beta Sigma, always a crowd pleaser, donned top hats and went back to the old school. Alpha Phi Alpha left the audience wondering, "Who were the masked brothers decked out in complete ninja gear that didn't miss an opportunity to throw down at every beat?"

The envelope please...

Step Show Champions A TIME TO RUN THE YARD

The ladies of  $\Delta\Sigma\Theta$  walked away with the first place trophy for their award winning routine. The soul stepping sorors of Delta Sigma Theta, impressed the judges with their precision and energy. These ladies did a tribute step to Omega Psi Phi that left everyone spell bound.

The mighty brothers of  $\Phi\beta\Sigma$  claimed first place for the fourth year in a row. Taking a bite out of the old school by paying tribute to the God Father of Soul, James Brown, the brothers of Phi Beta Sigma had the crowd on their feet with their exit step to "Please, Please, Please" and "I Got That Feeling".

PLAY TIME

It was "play time" in the Helen T. Chick Building for the first Sexiest Man on Campus contest sponsored by the Omega Beta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. The eleven men vying for bragging "rites" were judged by various members of each sorority in sportswear, swim suit and best pick up line.

Trey Scott was voted best swim wear even though Officer Clay had to ask him to cover up to the dismay of the mostly female audience. Ron Stewart received the head nod from the judges for best sportswear. Bobby Hill wowed them over with the best pick up line, "Do you mind if I ask you a question. . . Can I have you?"

At the end of the evening Senior Ron "Nothing but the Dog In Me" Stewart was proclaimed the sexiest man on campus.

Crowning of Miss FSU '99

ONCE UPON A TIME

Rushaunda Ramey was crowned Miss Fayetteville State University 1999 on January 26, 1999 in the Felton J. Capel Arena. During a special dinner held in her honor prior to the crowning ceremony, SGA President Keron James recognized her beauty, poise and grace. Carmen Jackson, attendant to Miss FSU, gave the occasion and Marcelle Smith, SGA Vice President presented the official Miss Fayetteville State University trophy and gifts from the Student Government Association.

Keron James, Marcelle Smith, Chancellor Willis B. McLeod, John Smith, Mr. FSU; Mrs. Olivia Chavis, Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs; and Carmen Jackson participated in the crowning ceremonies during half-time of the FSU vs WGSU basketball game. Ms. Ramey graciously greeted the crowd as Keron James serenaded our lovely queen with "My, My, My."

Bronco Rodeo

ONE LAST TIME IN '99

The Student Activities Council kicked it one last time in '99 during the annual Bronco Rodeo. Broncos partied throughout the week to celebrate the official end of the 1998-1999 academic year. It had been a year of bucking harder, reaching farther to attain a greater success.

MTV Road Rules TV TIME

MTV Road Rules rolled on to campus during the month of April. Free games, pizza, and of course music topped the charts for this fun day of activity. Broncos also were treated to the new Coke product, "Citra". Although the beverage didn't make the hit list, free MTV Road Rules tee-shirts and caps were a Bronco favorite.

Athletics has always been a source of pride and renewed school spirit at this, the home of the Broncos. Winning has long been a Bronco tradition. A world class institution of higher learning, Fayetteville State University, has always positioned itself in a class of champions. Bronco Basketball, Cross Country, Golf, Football, Softball, and Volleyball each serve the University with the best of sportmanship. They represent the very best about the Blue and White. One can find the very highest in CIAA sports entertainment right here. At Fayetteville State University you'll encounter some of the finest college educated athletes. # Athletic Banquet

A TIME TO ACKNOWLEDGE

The Annual Athletic Banquet was held in the Felton J. Capel Arena on April 28, 1999. Gilbert Baez, WTVD News Channel 11, served as the keynote speaker. The theme for this year's banquet was, Excellence Without Excuse. Approximately 150 student athletes, cheerleaders and sports information staff were honored during the banquet. Schavonne Brown, a member of the Women's Basketball Team and Volleyball Team, was named female Player of the Year. Jarvis Davis, a member of the Bronco Football Team and Basketball Team, was named male Player of the Year. Reeshemah Parkinson was honored for being selected the 1998 Woman of the Year for the State of North Carolina by the NCAA.

Anything one can do alone, can be done better as a group. The Bronco family works together in a supportive atmosphere to add culture and substance to the campus. Clubs and organizations are the vehicle for getting things done. At FSU each student has the opportunity to belong, excel and to lead. Each group serves a purpose and enriches the quality of life on campus. It's perfectly normal to have one's own thoughts and to function as an individual. However, campus organizations exist as reminders that in the Bronco Family, no one is alone. It is time to belong.

An education from Fayetteville State University means the ability to compete in this advanced society. Graduates are equipped to be professional in their respective fields and to continue their education in masters and doctoral programs. FSU provides a quality, affordable education to approximately 4,000 undergraduate and graduate students. Our faculty of over 200 focus on good teaching in the classroom, among them you will find award-winning authors, those who have won the highest honors in the state for excellence in teaching, and professors whose research is funded by such agencies as NASA and the US Department of Education. The University's main goal is to ensure that we graduate with the skills, knowledge and confidence we need to succeed in the 21st century workplace.

Teacher of the Year

DR. PHILLIPH MUTISYA

"Students first." With a motto such as this, it is no wonder that Dr. Philliph Masila Mutisya is Fayetteville State University's 1998-99 Teacher of the Year. Dr. Mutisya is an Associate Professor of Education in the Department of Middle, Secondary, and Special Education. It is his belief that the "future of our world rest with teachers of tomorrow, and the teachers of tomorrow need to support, guide and challenge students in a way that will assure their ability to apply and transfer their knowledge to ever-changing challenges."

Dr. Mutisya received a Masters of Education in International Education-Training and Development and an Educational Doctorate in Instructional Leadership Education from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. He has several scholarly publications to his credit. They include: Demystologization and Demystification of African Initiation Rites: A Positive and Meaningful Educational Aspect of Heading for Extinction, How Teachers can Become "Jacks of all Trades and Masters of None and Gain Empowerment as Professionals.

College of Arts & Sciences

A TIME TO EXPLORE

The College of Arts & Sciences is comprised of seven departments and the Nursing Program. The College contributes to the education of all students because it has the primary responsibility for the core curriculum courses. The University College provides assistance to students from the time they enter the University until they complete all requirements for acceptance into their major degree program. Students gain the basic academic skills and general knowledge necessary for success in their respective academic majors. The College offers major degree programs in English, the mathematical, natural, social and behavioral sciences and in the humanities and fine arts. Dr. Bertha Miller serves as the Dean.

School of Business

A TIME TO INVEST

Under the direction of Dr. Charles Davis, the School of Business & Economics is committed to preparing and educating students to be visionary business professionals. The Bachelor of Science degree is offered in seven undergraduate programs: Accounting, Business Administration, Economics, Office Administration, Basic Business Administration, Comprehensive Business Education and Marketing Education. At the graduate level, a Master of Business Administration degree is offered.

School of Education

A TIME TO TEACH

For more than 131 years, Fayetteville State has maintained its commitment to the training of teachers. It is from the humble beginnings of the State Colored Normal School, a teacher training institution, from which Fayetteville State University has grown.

The School of Education continues to educate and prepare individuals at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Under the direction of Dean Joseph Johnson '68, the School offers degrees in four academic departments: Elementary Education, Curriculum and Instruction; Educational Leadership and Secondary Education; and Health, Physical Education and Human Services.

Fall Convocation

A TIME TO BEGIN

The 1998 Fall Convocation ceremonies were held on September 10, 1998 in the J. W. Seabrook Auditorium. This was a momentous event which included greetings from various members of the community. The University choir and band set the mood for the occasion with beautiful selections such as "War March of the Priest" and "Total Praise". Mr. H. Martin Lancaster, president of the North Carolina Community College System, served as the keynote speaker. Mr. Lancaster expounded about the importance of developing good minds. He encouraged us to cherish our youth by making the most of the many opportunities and experiences offered at FSU.

Mr. Martin delivers the keynote address.

The crowd recognizes Joanna Lowe, Miss FSU 1998.

Chancellor McLeod thanks Mr. Lancaster for an inspiring address.

Winter Commencement

A TIME TO GRADUATE

After many long years of hard work and sacrifice, 283 students realized a dream that it was finally time to graduate at the Ninth Winter Commencement held in the Felton J. Capel Arena on Saturday, December 12th.

Mr. Benjamin S. Ruffin, Vice President of Corporate Affairs for R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., the domestic tobacco subsidiary of RJR Nabisco, Inc., served as the keynote speaker. Mr. Ruffin shared an inspiring poem, "Be Strong. You're not here to dream, to drift. You have hard work to do and heavy loads to lift. Shun not the struggle, face it - tis God's gift."

Ramona E. Watts was recognized as valedictorian and Katrina Humphrey, was salutatorian.

MLK Birthday Celebration

A TIME TO DREAM

The annual student Martin Luther King, Jr. Birthday Celebration was held in the Student Center on January 14, 1999. Kelvin Thompson, SGA President Pro Tempore, presided. SGA President, Keron James reflected on the importance of celebrating Dr. King's life. Rushanda Ramey, Miss FSU and John Smith, Mr. FSU presented the making of a holiday. Lance Turner, a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, served as the keynote speaker.

Jubilation

A CELEBRATION OF AFRICAN AMERICAN PERFORMERS

In celebration of Black History Month, the Office of Student Activities sponsored Jubilation: A Celebration of African-American Performers. Jubilation chronicled African-American performers, composers and writers from the 1930's-1960's. Styles presented ranged from the Harlem Renaissance to the Motown era including jazz, opera, R&B and poetry. The program featured performers from the NC Institute for the Performing and Visual Arts and FSU students, Rod Woods, Kelvin Thompson, Calvin Torres, and Rita McIver.

Honors & Awards

A TIME TO APPLAUD

The Annual Honors and Awards Convocation was held on Thursday, April 8, 1999 in Seabrook Auditorium. Mr. Ronald G. Penny, Director of State Personnel, delivered the keynote address. Mr. Penny challenged Broncos to use their education to make a difference.

The Honors and Awards program, a momentous occasion for more than 42 years at Fayetteville State, provides an opportunity for faculty and staff to recognize students for outstanding achievement. Academic Honors, Departmental, and Leadership awards were presented to those students who demonstrated Bronoco Pride in its upmost form through their diligent pursuits of academic knowledge and service to the University and the community.

Founders' Day

A TIME TO REMEMBER

The 132nd Founders' Day Convocation was held on Sunday, April 11th in the Seabrook Auditorium. This annual event pays homage to the seven founding fathers of FSU and chronicles the University's illustrious history.

Dr. Mary Micahels Pohlmann '64, the first white student to attend the historically black institution since it opened its doors in 1867 as the Howard School, served as the keynote speaker. Dr. Pohlmann, a physician in the Student Health Service at Southern Illinois University, urged the audience of student, alumni and faculty to not "tolerate bigotry in yourself or in your associates. Be a positive force for goodwill. Teach and the lesson will be taught."

Founders' Day was also a time to recognize the Chancellor's Certificate of Merit Recipients; Dr. James Baldwin, Mr. John A. Penix '51, Mr. Leonard Hedgepeth, Mr. John E. Raper, Jr., and Mr. Frederick Waddell. The Family of the Year, the David O'Berry and Maggie Darden Bell Family of Fayetteville, NC, was also honored.

The Founders' Day Program also included the dedication ceremonies for the Joseph L. Knuckles Science Annex.

Treemonisha

A TIME TO PERFORM

Treemonisha was the Department of Performing and Fine Arts second operatic production of the year. Written by Scott Joplin in the 1800's, the historic black opera was not only entertaining but served to reinforce and affirm the talents of early African-American artist and writers. A jazz musician and composer, Joplin's work made for an interesting blend of sound and colors. Audience members were sure to hear the "jazzy" chords and ear poppin' melodies abound.

Treemonisha was set in a small village where everybody knew everybody and none was a stranger. It's the story of young woman who is the only one in her village with schoolin' and after a kidnapping and a daring rescue finds that she was born to lead her people. The opera, though written nearly two hundred years ago still remains poignant with issues of today.

SGA Installation Ceremony

A TIME TO TAKE CHARGE

Following the Spring Student Government Elections, officers were installed to their respective offices during the annual SGA Installation Ceremony. Dr. Willie Snipes served as the keynote speaker. Newly elected SGA President, Marcelle Smith inspired student leaders with his inaugural address. Other officers installed included SAC Program Director, LaShonda Maxfield; SGA Treasurer, Chris Wilks and SAC Administrative Assistant, Monica Jones.

Dr. Snipes encourages students to take charge.

Spring Commencement

A TIME TO EMBRACE

The 132nd Spring Commencement Exercises were held on May 15, 1999 in the Felton J. Capel Arena. The Honorable Bob Etheridge, US Congressman, delivered the keynote address. Kimberly D. Cannonier, Valedictorian, and Sheronda R. Lennon, Salutatorian were recognized for their outstanding academic performance.

The 343 graduates cheered and shouted because it was time to reap the benefits of the many years of hard work and sacrifice. As they listened to the words of advice from the numerous speakers, they reflected upon their journey at FSU, no doubt the moment was finally here-- It was time to go out and conquer the world!

A Note of Thanks

First we would like to thank all of those who have given support to the 98-99 Fayettevillian. We realize that it may have seemed like this edition would never be printed. No fingers can be pointed at one particular person or reason rather to the skeem of the hectic life in which live. We encountered many, many obstacles and problems, both work related and personal and we really felt like forgetting it. Then we thought about you, the student body, and we kept working. We kept trying to get pictures taken, trying to figure out a way to produce undergraduate photographs from the ID Card System (Yes! the company assured us that we could do this and it worked so well in the test demonstration) and trying to produce a book that captured the moments that we shared. But life doesn't always go as planned and so we realized that it was time for us to change the things that we could change and accept the things that we could not change. So as we end the 20th Century, we look back and remember the way we lived, who we loved, the challenges we faced and the victories we won.

THE FAYETTEVILLIAN STAFF

General Information

The Fayettevillian, the Yearbook of Fayetteville State University, is published annually. This years yearbook consisted of 160 pages. The Fayettevillian office is located in the Pudolph Jones Student Center Fayetteville, NC 28301, (910) 486-1406.

Volume 42 was printed by the Herff Jones Company, P.O. Box 1013, Charlotte, North Carolina 28201, (704) 847-9801. Our representative was Brent DeWeese. Darlene Cooper served as our "life saving" Plant Customer Service Representative.

DESIGN AND LAYOUT INFORMATION

All layouts were designed by The Fayettevillian staff. All layouts were produced on a Hewlett-Packard computer using Aldus Pagemaker 6.0 and Corel WordPerfect 6.1 for Windows. Layouts, including all copy, were submitted on disk to the printer.

Fonts used include Kaufman, Lithos Regular, Tekton, and Modern. Black and white photos were submitted to Herff Jones where they were laser scanned and enlarged/reduced to specifications.

All color photographs were taken by The Fayettevillian staff members except for the senior portraits which were taken by Thornton Studios of New York and the football team picture which was taken by Paul Harris.

Fayetteville State University is a constituent institution of the University of North Carolina

◀ Fashion designers looked to the past to create the newest trends in clothing. Calf-length skirts and capri pants, elbow length shirts, carpenter pants, spaghetti strap dresses and tops, and clunky shoes were seen everywhere. Long, straight hair and the bob began to come back. Adidas, GAP, Old Navy, and Abercrombie & Fitch were some popular name brands with teens.
